

Fig. 4. Mouse female germ cell divisions.

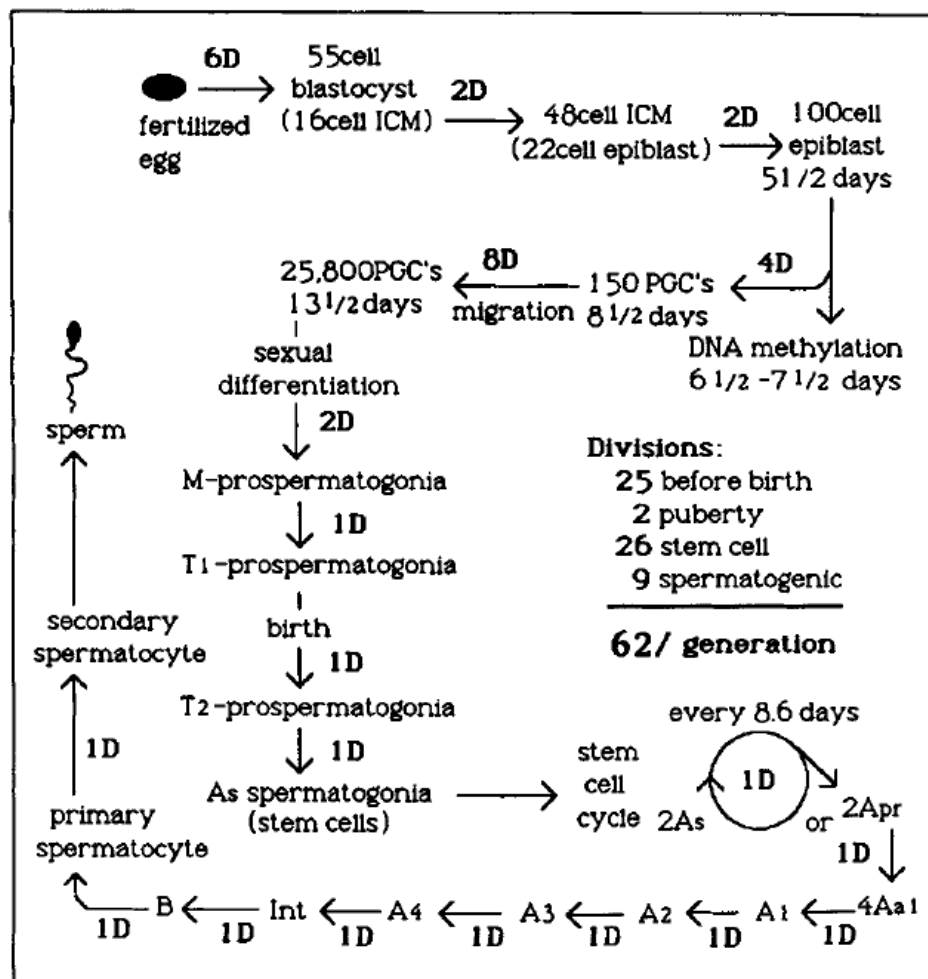

Fig. 5. Mouse male germ cell divisions. Spermatogenesis begins at 6 days. Stem cell divisions occur every 8.6 days. The stem cell division resulting in mature sperm at 9 months (274 days) occurred in the cycle ending 43 days earlier, and there have been $(274-43-6)/8.6 = 26$ stem cell divisions.